Cuyahoga County Historical Society—First Annual Celebration.

Wednesday, Oct. 20th, 1858, was a memorable day in the annals of Cuyahoga County. In obedience to the invitation of the Trustees of the Cuyahoga County Historical Society, the Pioneers, Fathers, Mothers, their Sons and their Daughters, from all the Townships, assembled under the Big Tent at Newburgh, and, with the other guests, swelled the concourse to some four thousand people. The mild October sun never smiled upon a more interesting spectacle.

The officers of the Historical Society are:

PRESIDENT, LEONARD CASE, of Cleveland.

VICE PRESIDENTS, J. D. TAYLOR, Rockport.

ANDREW COZAD, East Cleveland.

WILLIAM COLEMAN, Euclid.

EDWARD MAYFIELD,

Johnathan M. Langbridge.

L. S. BULL, Solon.

Moses Gleason, Bedford.

DANIEL WARREN, Warrensville.

ALFRED WOOD, Lakewood.

JUSTUS HAMILTON, Newburgh.

JONA FRAZER, Independence.

THEO BRECK, Brecksville.

JAMES TOWNSLEY, Royalton.

B. W. WILCOX, Mayfield.

J. FULLER, Middleburg.

JAS. M. COGGIN, Parma.

D. J. STEVENS, Olmsted.

BARNABAS HALL, Dover.

EBENEZER FISH, Brooklynn.

TEA LEE, Lakewood.

SAMUEL WILLIAMSON, Cleveland.

SECRETARY, JOHN BARKER, Cleveland.

TRUSTEE, CHARLES WHITFIELD, Cleveland.

ABRAHAM MERCHANT, Cleveland.

GEORGE MERRWIN, Rockport.

The congregation was called to order by Vice President Envoy, President of the Day—Seated, with him on the platform, was the venerable OLIVER CELVER, the only survivor of the First Surveying Party of 1796, Rev. Dr. ALEXIS, Rev. Mr. SEWARD, the Vice Presidents of the Society present, and a number of the most aged of the Cuyahoga Pioneers.

The Throne of Grace was invoked by Dr. ALEXIS, the old and beloved Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Cleveland. Secretary BARKER then read the record of the proceedings of the Historical Society, and was followed in the eloquent address we publish, by the Hon. R. P. SPALDING, in the absence of Col. CHARLES WHITFIELD, the appointed Orator for the occasion.

Mr. CELVER was then introduced to the Pioneers and the People, and his venerable and commanding form was greeted with cheers of welcome.

He spoke briefly, merely expressing his happiness and thanks. Then, the inimitable, set everybody in a roar by an impromptu song, when the Dinner Horn was sounded, and the Pioneer Fathers and Mothers were seated at tables loaded with the old and the new delicacies and substantialities of life. The tables were filled again and again, until everybody was satisfied, so bountiful was the feast provided by the generous Newburghers.

After dinner the spinning wheels, cards, hatchets, etc., of the olden time were put in motion, and the relics of the past were examined and talked about for an hour or so. Of these, and various and sundry matters, we shall speak more in detail.

In the afternoon brief addresses were made by Pioneers Wm. COLEMAN, of Euclid, ELIJAH TAYLOR, of Cleveland, and J. D. TAYLOR, of Rockport. Secretary BARKER read the Records of the First Court in Trumbull county, in 1800—Trumbull then being bounded west by the Cuyahoga river and the Portage Path, and to it some characteristic anecdotes of Maj. CARTER, of Pioneers the chief. Doug sang the balance of his impromptu song with fine effect, and the excellent Solon band added much to the zest of the celebration by their popular airs.

At about 3 P. M. the ceremonies closed, and the Pioneers and People departed to their several places of abode, happy in the greetings exchanged, and the old time reminiscences exchanged and its surroundings had called up of Forest Life and Forest Homes.

The local Committees and the citizens of Newburgh generally have the warmest thanks for their efforts to make all comfortable, decent, and happy. They spared no pains and expense, and all the arrangements were perfect. How could they be otherwise with such a Ladies' Committee as Mrs. E. MILLS, Mrs. SHAW, Mrs. MARY WOODBINE, Mrs. MARY BURGESS, Mrs. HENRY PEATTY, Mrs. SCHWEITZER, Mrs. E. EMELINE WEBB, Miss OLIVE MEADE, Miss D. GAYLORD, and Miss ESTHER BURKE; and a Gentlemen's Committee composed of DANIEL WARREN, L. W. WIGGINS, H. C. PRATT, V. L. MORRISON, A. CARTER, J. GALLUP, T. GUILFORD, and J. HOPKINS; with B. L. WIGGINS of Marion, and E. T. HAMILTON and JOHN SMITH, Assistants.

Let us hope that every year will witness a like gathering of the tribes of the Cuyahoga's.

All the tableau depicting several voyages in the Arctic regions possess marked merit, and are certified by the most satisfactory authority.

It is prepared by a popular artist, and is not recommended for all the world.
